Regulations

1. The total credits required for graduation are 32 credits (comprising 18 required credits, 14 elective credits, and 6 thesis credits).
2. Credits per semester: First-year students may register for 6–16 credits in their first semester; all other semesters allow 3–16 credits.
3. Students must either complete the academic ethics course offered by the Taiwan Academic Ethics Education Resources Center and obtain a certificate of completion, or attend at least 6 hours of academic ethics-related workshops and obtain a certificate of participation. When applying for the master's thesis oral examination, students must submit one of the aforementioned certificates; only upon review and approval may the application for the oral examination proceed.
4. Graduate students in this department may, upon approval by the department chair and based on their academic needs, take professional courses offered by graduate programs in related departments either at this university or at other institutions. The credits earned may be recognized as elective credits toward graduation, up to a maximum of 3 credits.
